

HISTORY WALK

There will be another history walk around Carlton, this time concentrating on the north end of the village and the wharf area, on Sunday 14 August.

We'll start with coffee at the Village Hall at 11, and return there for lunch. The pace is gentle, and various people will tell us about the buildings and layout of the village as we go.

The walk is free but donations towards the cost of refreshments are welcome.

CARLTON ON TRENT VILLAGE FETE

Thank you!

A huge thank you to everyone who helped out at the fete. Whether you manned a stall, put up a marquee or helped behind the scenes – like my neighbour who peeled 10kg of onions for the BBQ! – Mel and I would like to thank you all.

We had a fantastic response to our appeal for tombola prizes and bottles of wine, and thank you to all our sponsors, large and small, who made the raffle such an outstanding offering, with over £1000 of prizes up for grabs. Special mention much go to Dean Fairhurst, cabinet-maker extraordinaire, for donating the first prize of £150. Check out his bespoke kitchens and furniture at dffurniture.co.uk.

People braved the rain and despite our fears we had our second biggest turnout. As a result we were able to donate £1000 each to St Mary's Church and the Village Hall.

If you would like to volunteer next year come along to the helpers' debriefing at the Village Hall on Friday 22nd July from 6.30.

Gardening Volunteers Wanted

The organic garden at Carlton Hall is looking for volunteers who'd like to help out taming the wilderness in the walled garden, learn about permaculture, and receive some organic goodies for their effort.

Whether you fancy spending a single afternoon or committing an hour or two every week, Mark the gardener would love to show you round the garden he is establishing.

And that goes for anyone who just fancies a nosy. He's a lovely chap and knows a lot about sustainable gardening – he's more than happy to share his knowledge.

Mark has plant starts, seasonal organic produce, organic groceries and eggs available regularly: look for the whiteboard at the gates for more info.
